

New Sponsorship furthers work of psychiatric cemetery restoration in Washington state.

New grave markers restore identity and dignity of individuals with mental illness buried on the old Western State Hospital property in Lakewood.

The Grave Concerns Association announced it received a $9,000 donation from OptumHealth to identify an estimated 100 people who were buried in unmarked graves at the historic Western State Hospital, according to a press release.

Read the Full Article at Lakewood Patch