Historical Committee No work was done during the past month. We still need to go through archives and sort items. Laurel Lemke will coordinate a work party to sort through boxes and organize items. We should be thinking about what we want to do for the WSH museum display.

Research Committee Becky Huber has volunteered and has been researching if the men buried along the perimeter were veterans or not. She was able to use Ancestry.com to find additional information on WSH patients. She explained that she was able to identify 12 veterans, 2 Civil War veterans, draft cards, family trees and was also able to identify individuals on the 1920 & 1930 census. She will continue her research.

Richard Chiaravolloti is preparing for the annual Dahlia Bulb sale.

Lap-Top Research Committee Laurel Lemke and Cindy Walston, a computer consultant, have been looking into different lap-tops that will serve the GCA needs. She will continue to look and expects to have the lap-top purchased by the next meeting. The lap-top will be used for GCA business, and will have quick-books and MS Office suite on it.

Volunteer Coordinator Michael Hardie will be working on a volunteer list. He will create a volunteer management data base for CGA.

Old Business

Karen Young reported on the Non-profit Center of South Sound's membership luncheon held on February 24, 2010, held at the Tacoma Convention Center. The luncheon's theme was "The Evolution of a Non-Profit Company."

Laurel Lemke reported on the web-site restoration project. We are still experiencing a delay in keeping the web-site current. A few more members need to be trained on how to manage the site and to keep it up-to-date. After it went down, we experienced a glitch in the program. The program inserted A's throughout the documents. It is suspected that this could be a virus. Karen Young will contact Steve Desilets and try to work the bugs out of the program.

The Lakewood Parks Dept has repaired the KIOSK that was damaged. Scott Williams, from the Lakewood Parks Dept indicated that they replaced the side boards and shingles.

New Business

On Sunday, April 25, 2010 a volunteer group (Bruce Gage, Indra Finch and friends ) have volunteered to set up for (dog-tag) insertions to identify markers. They are looking for a few more volunteers to help.

An idea of the purple wrist bands, water bottles etc have been presented. Michael Hardie is entertaining ideas. If you have a good one – let Michael or Laurel know.

has served her well. The decision was tabled until the next meeting.
